Thoughts on Entering This Refulgent Summer

Robin Capoor

We'll reflect upon the reasons Ralph Waldo Emerson remains important for Unitarian Universalists seeking truth and meaning as we encourage one another in spiritual growth.

Don Sense

– by Rev. Don Garrett

Our Theme for June:

What Does It Mean to be a Community of Joy?

"In my own worst seasons I've come back from the colorless world of despair by forcing myself to look hard, for a long time, at a single glorious thing: a flame of red geranium outside my bedroom window. And then another: my daughter in a yellow dress. And another: the perfect outline of a full, dark sphere behind the crescent moon. Until I learned to be in love with my life again. Like a stroke victim retraining new parts of the brain to grasp lost skills, I have taught myself joy, over and over again." – Barbara Kingsolver

Be careful this month. Our theme of joy is deceptive. One could easily see this is a way to end the year "on a light note." But there's deep work for us to do with this topic.

There have been many religious perspectives that begin with the idea that this world is broken, a place of misery and pain, toil and struggle. We are told that our job is to survive it, indeed transcend it, through sacrifice, confession of our own brokenness, and an industrious "Protestant work ethic." Joy is reserved for a time far off and found in a heaven granted to those who earn it.

And yet there are others – Unitarians Universalist included – that just don't see it this way. They look out, and like the God of Genesis, their response is "behold, it is good!" The "problem" according to this spiritual view lies not so much in a fallen, irredeemable world but with our limited perspective. Heaven, as our UU forbearers argued, is right here on earth; our job is to see it and take pleasure in it. And far from being indulgent or seductive, this "work" of pleasure and delight is the key to humanizing us. As Barbara Kingsolver's words suggest, joy has the power to transform us.

Garrett and others to ensure that every need is cared for. Just give her a call at 973-632-3211 or email her at robincapoor@msn.com.

FROM THE PRESIDENT

I want my last column as President of the UUCLV Board of Trustees to look to the future with hope. Next year, beginning on 1 July 2017, Cease Blocker, the current Vice-President, will become the President. I will continue on the Board as Past President, and the congregation will elect a new Vice-President at the Annual Meeting on June 11th. Both personally and on behalf of the entire congregation, I extend sincere thanks to the two members who will be leaving the Board after June: Past President Ellen Bell and At-Large member Tom Zimmerman.

The Board also had a significant challenge with resignations this year. Special thanks to Board members Sarah Carlson, Chris Davis, and Tom Repasch for stepping in to fill vacancies.

As with most years, 2016-2017 was filled with both promises and challenges. Perhaps our greatest challenge was operating the entire year with a deficit budget. We have done it before, and will, most likely, have to do it again. However, I'm proud that your Finance Committee and Board of Trustees will recommend a balanced budget for 2017-2018 at the Annual Meeting.

The Board also spent much time this year looking forward with hope, as we began what, we anticipate, will be a Transformational Planning process to strengthen our congregation's covenantal behavior and guide the UUCLV for the next 3-5 years. The Board has also been busy this past year with other business of the church, including adopting new policies, attending various workshops throughout the year, and developing our response to the UUA's call to action centered on hiring practices within the denomination. You can read about all of the activities of both the Board and the Transformational Planning Team in the compilation of committee annual reports that will be available at the Annual Meeting.

On a personal note, my sincere thanks to the congregation for the confidence you showed in me by voting me onto the Board's 3-year "leadership track" (Vice-President, President, Past President). I hope my year as President was worthy of your trust, and please know that I will work to continue earning that trust next year as your Past President.

-- Peace and Love, Bob

With "one, long, holy stare at a single glorious thing," we are suddenly re-connected. Balance is restored. We see the world not simply as brutish, broken and dangerous, but also as gentle, surprising and woven through with a Love that will not let us go. This simple act of sacred staring is not about distraction. It's about achieving a wider view. It's about stepping back and seeing it all as a gift. When we feel joy, we don't simply feel delight in one tiny piece of the world; we feel welcomed back in – connected once again to the whole.

In this sense, as many have said, the opposite of joy is not sadness, but isolation and disconnection. Joy doesn't just make us feel happy; It restores relationship. And not just relationship to the world, but also to the Divine. Theologian John Cobb describes God as "the all of everything." Joy places us within that whole not outside it. In this way, the experience of joy is very much also the experience of God.

So, friends, are you ready for that? Are you ready to be welcomed back in? If so, look around. There are dozens of "glorious things" inviting you to return.

See you in church.

– Don

FROM THE LIFESPAN EDUCATION COORDINATOR

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION (RE) FOR CHILDREN & YOUTH

The religious education semester has finished! Three of our seniors are graduating and will bridge into adulthood on June 11th. Six middle schoolers completed the Our Whole Lives program. The 5th and 6th grade class enjoyed talking about and acting out ethical dilemmas in the Amazing Grace class. The primary and elementary grade class learned about and celebrated Holidays and Holy Days around the world. Thanks to our team of volunteers for making it a successful year. There will be a more tangible thank-you for RE volunteers at our annual RE volunteer appreciation breakfast on Sunday morning, June 4 at 9:00 in the gymnasium. Right after the breakfast the preK through 6th grade classes will celebrate the end of the year in the gym for songs, games, snacks. The Our Whole Class will have one last class I room 306 and celebrate their completion. The following Sunday, June 11th, is full of activities. The annual flower communion and senior class bridging ceremony will fill the service, followed by the annual congregational meeting. Sunday June 18 is the start of our summer religious education program for primary and elementary age students.

Summer Magic: Hogwarts Sunday School program using UU Principles

Each class, we'll view a snippet of one of the Harry Potter films that relates to a UU principle. In lesson 1, children will travel to Diagon Alley, The wizards' version of a "shopping mall". Instead of buying their magic supplies, they will make them. Each child will decorate their own wand, cape, book and quill. Lesson 2 uses the sorting ceremony to teach about the Inherent Worth and Dignity of all people.

The RE committee looks forward to a fun summer of Harry Potter magic and learning.

Capoor will be presenting new material from all of these areas. There will be speakers from many of the faith traditions and field trips to their worship services within the Lehigh Valley. The class begins on Sunday, September 17th at 9am in the RE Library. Please tell Jansen Wendell (lec@uuclvpa.org) or Rev. Robin Capoor (robincaoor@msn.com) if you're interested.

HANDICAPPED ACCESS ELEVATOR PROJECT TO PROCEED

At the May meeting, the UUCLV Board approved a proposal from the Capital Projects Committee to build a Limited Use/Limited Access (LULA) elevator to provide handicapped accessibility to three levels of the church: the Community Room, the Sanctuary, and the RE/Administrative level. The proposed solution also provides the capability to offer access to the gym level when funds are available.

A LULA is a hybrid between and full-sized commercial elevator and a wheelchair lift. It looks and rides like a standard elevator. The sole purpose of a LULA is to provide barrier-free access.

The cost of the project is estimated at approximately $194,000. The amount of capital funding currently available is $157,000, which includes a $20,000 Chalice Lighter grant from Joseph Priestly District. The Finance Committee and Board approved a supplemental capital fund raising campaign to raise additional funds to address the shortfall.

The project is expected to start in late summer and take approximately four weeks to complete.

Also, let's look at what makes a good teacher, and what can be done to help our current educational system.

The UUCLV Men's Group is open to all UUCLV members high school age or older regardless of gender. Please bring food and/or beverage to be shared. For information, contact men@uuclvpa.org or Frank Claps at 610-346-7629.

NATIVE PLANT SALE UPDATE

We had the Spring Native Plant Sale during the weekends of 6/7/13/14 of May. Thank you to all of you who spread the word about the sale and who bought plants. We had approximately 150 customers of which 95% were from the community and not affiliated with the church. We had about 1200 potted plants in the sale. It was very cold and very wet during much of the sale.

A number of people helped with the plant sale, which included potting 700 plants, driving the 120 trays to the church, putting up the 10 tables up and covering them, setting up for the sale, and selling. Helpers included Lorraine and Bernie Bujnowski, Sharon Beckhard, Linda Fredricks, Allen Zinnes and Ilse Stoll, Karen Hicks, Vickie Bastidas, Tom Repasch, Dora Davenport, Jansen Wendell, Jane Cook, Suzanne Drake, Martha Christine, Rosanne Amano, Linda Brown, Barbara Malt, Christy Roysdon and Josie Miserendino. I hope I did not forget anyone. THANK YOU. We donated about 10 plants each to 12 environmental organization of the valley and made $4350 for the church.

HIDDEN UU TALENT SEARCH

We are fortunate to have many musicians in the UU family who are willing to share their talents with the congregation during church events, including Sunday services.

A recent poll of members revealed that some members would prefer a more diverse musical menu for church. If you play an instrument, sing solo or participate in a group and would like to offer your services on a Sunday morning, please contact Larry Lipkis, Music Director, at lalipkis@morvian.edu or Janice Galassi, Music Committee Chair at janicegalassi@gmail.com. Please share your name, instrument or vocal part, and what kind of music you perform.

Our Music Director and/or members of the music committee will be happy to hear you or your group and fit you into an appropriate service. Instrumentalists and/or vocalists typically perform prelude, introit and postlude. Hymn accompaniment is sometimes included. We look forward to hearing from you.

MY EXPERIENCE AT THE UU UNO CONFERENCE

I'm Carolyn Wood and I had the immense privilege of attending the UN UNO conference in early April. It was a wonderful experience thanks to the open and energetic atmosphere that pervaded the event. This atmosphere was evident in the joyous welcoming worship service, as leaders from many faith traditions came together to center us in the spirit of love and justice.

The subject of the conference was disarmament, a complex and troubling issue that spans from nuclear weapons to drone warfare and gun violence. One memorable panelist discussed of the Black Lives Matter movement and the danger facing black men and women in our country. He described the power of the young protesters in Ferguson and challenged us to speak out against violence and hatred. Thus, while the subjects addressed at the conference were inherently upsetting, the speakers also provided empowering calls to action.

The difficult subject matter was balanced by a sense of community. Through small circle discussions, we were able to share our thoughts and draw strength from one another. The main youth workshop focused on engaging our spirituality in our work for justice. At the end of the workshop, youth were invited to share their own efforts in their communities. The responses flowed out: "our church is helping a Syrian refugee family", "I'm trying to make our school a sanctuary school", "I went to the Women's March to stand up for our rights", and many more. This moment—and the entire experience—truly gave me faith that we can change our world.

UUCLV ANNUAL MEETING: JUNE 11

Get out your calendars and note that the UUCLV's Annual Meeting takes place at 11:45 on Sunday, June 11, 2017. All members are welcome and invited. Committee Chairs and others contributing 2016-17 reports to the Annual Report must email their materials to uuclv@uuclvpa.org by Sunday, May 28.

Do you have an affinity for "numbers," and are you enthusiastic about computer work? If so, you might be interested in the important "treasury-related" activities of the church. Also, the Finance Committee can always use "new faces" with an interest in money and fiscal matters. Allen Zinnes, Don Davis, or I would be happy to discuss these "opportunities" with you.
