Some Way Out of Here

Rev. Don Garrett

What is happening to our country? We're awash in a mixture of polarization, cynicism and anger that's threatening to tear us apart. We'll explore some alternatives that might help.

September 11

Water Communion

Rev. Don Garrett and Worship Associates

Bring your waters and stories from your summer and share them in our annual ritual of togetherness.

A Community of Covenant

What does it mean to have a covenant; what does it mean to live it?

Promises, Promises

Sue Weber

For the last service with our theme of Covenant, let's talk about the promises we make to ourselves and others during our lives, how hard it can be to keep these promises and what happens if we don't.

DonSense – by Rev. Don Garrett

What a summer! I hope y'all had the adventures you'd hoped for. And if you weren't interested in having a summer adventure, I hope that worked for you, too.

Claudia and I put 5,360 miles on our car as we traveled from Bethlehem to Indianapolis (old friends), to St. Louis (my daughter, Cypress), and Santa Fe (newer friends). We enjoyed the big expanses of American landscape, and climbed some amazing rock formations outside of Santa Fe. But the big adventure started when we got to Boulder and got up into the high peaks of the Rocky Mountains.

We hiked to waterfalls; we hiked to vistas; we visited the continental divide in two different places. We had a great time climbing and hiking up to about 12,500 feet above sea level, at which point my lungs insisted that they were being deprived of oxygen. We yielded to their wisdom, although Claudia could have gone much higher.

The best news is: the sabbatical time worked! I'm returning renewed and refreshed, ready to start another church year together with you. And it looks like you were busy while I was away. The Board, Program Council, Committee on Ministry and Church Planning appear to have been engaged in some exciting conversations about congregational health and renewal.

Our September theme is "What does it mean to be a community of covenant?" I can't wait to get started! You can start now by reading the piece by the Rev. Gretchen Haley, below.

See you in church.

– Don

What Does It Mean To Be A Community of Covenant?

Rev. Gretchen Haley, Senior minister of Foothills Unitarian, Fort Collins, Colorado

Covenant is one of those words that can initially sound kind of stuffy, academic and out-of-date. But when you unpack its meaning and its practices, covenant holds a whole vision for how to live in this complicated, beautiful and broken world. It is a vision that says we are most human when we bind ourselves in relationship. But not just any relationship – relationships of trust, mutual accountability and continual return.

FROM THE PRESIDENT

Saying Good-Bye...Saying Hello

So...here we are, about to make another one of the year's major changes. Now, we leave the leisure, vacations, and slow pace of summer to get back into the rigors of our workaday world with the kids back in school. As a church family, we are also saying a good-bye and a hello...a "Good-bye, and thank you so much!" to Rev. Libby Smith and a "Hello and welcome back!" to Rev. Don.

I consider myself extremely fortunate to have made a new friend in Rev. Libby. I think she did an outstanding job of filling the pulpit during Rev. Don's sabbatical. She started by identifying the qualities essential to our religious life as UUs, then she spent a sermon going into depth on each one. She actually left the first one ("Creating a Covenantal Community") for us to work on as our monthly theme in September. She talked about cultivating compassion and wrestling with the concept of the Holy. She even admitted to having difficulty preparing her last topic: bridging the gap with those (typically more conservative) that may not see the world as we do. Clearly, she left us with more than a week's worth of "food for thought" every time she spoke.

Having Rev. Libby lead us during the summer was a genuine treat for me, and, I hope, for you, as well. I only wish the weather had been cooler to encourage more congregants to come and appreciate her wisdom.

Just as we bid a fond farewell to Rev. Libby, and perhaps a hope to see and hear her again sometime in the future, we heartily welcome Rev. Don back from two months on sabbatical. I know that part of the time was spent enjoying the natural wonders of the western U.S. In the true nature of sabbaticals, we certainly hope that this time away has refreshed your spirit and rejuvenated your energy to get back into the church life you lovingly help to shape.

So, as we settle into another phase of the year, please join me in saying "Thank You, Rev. Libby!" and "Welcome Back, Rev. Don!" I'm sure there are exciting times ahead for the UUCLV.

Peace and Love,

Bob

COMMUNITY OF COVENANT

This is not what our culture teaches us. Our culture teaches us that what it means to be human is to be an individual – self-defined, self-determined, separate even. But our UU covenantal theology affirms that being human comes down to the commitments we make to and with each other – the relationships we keep. We become human through our promises to and with each other.

And even more than that: covenantal theology doesn't just say that we become human through our promising, but also when we break those promises, and yet somehow find ways to reconnect and begin again – when we repair the relationship because we know we need each other, even when we think the other isn't doing enough, even when the other is annoying us, or isn't listening well, or isn't doing things the way we want them done – even then. When we realize right then, that we are still connected, and we can't give up – and so we return, and begin again. This beginning again, says our faith, is when the holy and the human meet.

Let me tell you right now, sometime in the next year, maybe in the next few minutes, the people you most believe in and care about are going to disappoint you. Your church is going to disappoint you. This world is surely going to disappoint you. Like, all the time. We all are walking wounded and weary from the way this world can – and does – break our hearts.

And what our faith asks of us, what our faith imagines for us, is that somehow, right at that moment when our hearts break, we will find our way to see through that heartbreak. We will stay put – not close off, not run away, not hurt back – but keep on being in relationship, doing what we can to repair the world and each other, keep on opening our hearts with greater love. And, right then, our covenantal faith says – we will feel not only most human, but also most whole and most at home.

SEPTEMBER BREAKFAST FORUM

September 4

What does it mean to be a Community of Covenant ?

Rev. Don Garrett, Facilitator

There will be a brief presentation, followed by a small-group discussion format and a reuniting later to share what we've learned on the topic of "What does it mean to be a Community of Covenant?." Join in this adventure in speaking, listening, thinking, reflecting and sharing together in a new way; another way to live our values of compassion, nurture, and justice in our beloved community.

September 11

Forum Film Festival

Tom Repasch, Presenter

Cannes has one, and so does Sundance; so why not Breakfast Forum? Tom will show four short films, and we will all act as judges in choosing the best of the lot in a variety of categories. While giving our expert opinions, we will also reflect on our own experiences at the movies.

September 18

Reviewing the Presidential Elections of 1964 and 1968

Phil Reiss, Presenter

Phil will present the candidates positions and what policies they advocated in 1964 and then the emergence of different issues four years later in 1968. Civil Rights issues were prominent in 1964 and the dominant issue of 1968 was the polarization of opinions regarding what policy to implement regarding Vietnam. The election of 1968 was part of the politically tumultuous days in 1968

September 25

Epigenetics II: Maybe Lamarck was Partially Right

Frank Stone, Presenter

The epigenome (epi - alongside) is the (often environmentally) modified genome that carries additional information about which genes should be switched on or off, and how rapidly the switching process occurs. It's a new area, but a fascinating one. In Part II of this forum presentation, we'll continue to look at a few of the basics.

FROM THE LIFESPAN EDUCATION COORDINATOR

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION (RE) FOR CHILDREN AND YOUTH

Our Religious education Committee met last month for a retreat to review our committee covenant and mission statement, list our accomplishments and challenges for last year, and set goals for the coming year. This is our mission statement: We, the Youth Religious Education Committee of the UUCLV, are dedicated to providing comprehensive programs to foster UU faith development, and to build church community and interconnection.

Our goals for the coming year are:

1. Successfully introduce the Our Whole Lives program for the K-1 class in the winter
2. Change the name of the Family Choir to the Multigenerational Choir; increase its presence and participation. Do at least three performances this coming year.
3. Make multigenerational worship services more attractive for young people and parents

I look forward to working increased collaboration with other committees to fulfill our goals and the mission of the RE committee and our congregational mission.

In faith,

Jansen Wendell, Director of Lifespan Religious Education
(lec@uuclvpa.org)

ADULT RELIGIOUS EXPLORATION :

SPIRIT OF LIFE DISCUSSION GROUP:

Sunday mornings starting on September 18 at 8:45 in the RE library (through room 208). Child care available (upon request) in room 208.

Spirit of Life is a nine session adult faith development workshop co-led by Reverend Robin Capoor and DLRE Jansen Wendell. It is based on the song of the same name that we sing every Sunday after we share our joys and concerns. To quote the description from the introduction:

Many Unitarian Universalists find the song deeply meaningful. Its imagery is beautiful. Its words are inclusive of Unitarian Universalists all along our theological spectrum. Its tune grows on its singers and listeners, and many use the song to help themselves grow... Barbara Hamilton-Holway's Spirit of Life program seeks to be like the song from which it derives its name and bring meaning, beauty, inclusivity, and growth to Unitarian Universalist adults as they deepen their spiritual awareness and connections.

During each session, participants examine a phrase of the song. Session 1, Spirit of Life, introduces the group to each other and explores what our spiritual practices are. Workshop 2, Sing in My heart, is about celebrations and rituals. Workshop 3, The Stirrings of Compassion, is about Caring for One Another, and so on as we work our way through the phrases of the song.

MINDFULNESS PRACTICE GROUP

led by Reverend Don Garrett and Janice Lovegrove
(Tuesday evenings, 7:00 – 8:30, the Community Room)

With the help of conscious breathing we are able to touch and be nourished by the peace and joy that are available within and around us, in the here and now. We meet most weeks to learn, practice, and enjoy the benefits of mindfulness in our lives, our relationships, and in the larger communities of which we are a part. Contact Rev. Garrett at minister@uuclvpa.org for info.

JOSEPH CAMPBELL VIDEO SERIES – THE POWER OF MYTHS

(2nd and 4th Wednesdays of each month Room 304)

In lively, expansive dialogues, inspirational scholar Joseph Campbell discusses how myths hold the key to understanding human experience. They may vary superficially from culture to culture, but at their deepest level they all reveal the path to self-fulfillment, social integration, and ultimately, transcendence. Discussion will follow. 16 sessions, lasting about 1 1/2 hour. Contact Cease Blocker at 610-866-3714 or blocker@rcn.com.

LONG STRANGE TRIP: 2000 YEARS OF UNITARIAN UNIVERSALIST HISTORY (DVD series):

This set of 6 DVDs, available for loan, trace the history and evolution of Unitarianism, Universalism, and the merger of the two into today's Unitarian Universalism. If you want to find out about how our "Uncommon Denomination" came to be what it is today, from its roots in the Reformation to the American Revolution to the Civil War to the Transcendentalist Movement to the present, these movies are entertaining and captivating. Contact Jansen Wendell to arrange to borrow DVD's.

UUCLV NATIVE PLANT SALE: SEPTEMBER 17 & 18

The middle of September we have the fall native plant sale. This benefits a number of local green organization as well as the UUCLV.

Did you know that fall is a great time for planting? You get the fall rains, the cooler temperatures are great for root development. You get ahead by a year of growth and the plants are usually cheaper.

On Thursday 15th September we have set up. It would be great if you can help. It is from 4:30 to 6pm. We take the plants and put them with the signs on the tables.

On the weekend 17th and 18th September we run the sale – one weekend only, not 2, from 9-3pm. We would need help selling, adding the stickers, and if the customers want it, we take the plants to their car.

Please contact Ilse Stoll if you plan to help. Please share with your friends and neighbors. Look for a talk on native plants and a coupon. Zinnes@verizon.net or 610-868-2153

ADOPT-A-WINDOW PROJECT SOARS

We are ecstatic! The UUCLV community has responded generously to the Adopt-a-Window proposal to fund professional painting of the exterior window frames and trim this fall. The project was born from concerns about both the building's appearance and the integrity of the unprotected wood.

As of August 21 (to meet The Link deadline), the entire Wall Street side of the church building, more than half of the south side and a front window are funded.

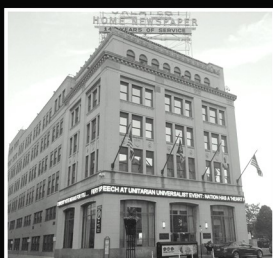

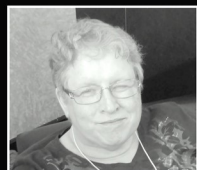

We extend a big "thank you" to Allen & Ilse (Stoll) Zinnes, Peggy Hobbs, Dave & Lib Kiefer, Don & Jean Davis, Barbara & John Diamant, Frank & Judy Claps, Nancy Light, Pat Herring, Richard & Julie Brooks, Molly Trimble, Ann Peaslee, Lyle & Vicky Woodard, Karen & Bill Berry, Robert Garvin, Pradeep Ghia, Cease Blocker, Jordan & Melissa Sonnenblick, Bernie & Lorraine Bujnowski, Dora Davenport & Robin Capoor, Dorothy Cockrell, Cecilia Collura-Eberhard, Christine Davis, Ellen Bell & Phil Reiss, Chuck & Karen West, Dave

Roper, Brenda Barton and Margo Dixon. (If you gave and your name is missing, it is because bookwork lags and you will be credited soon.)

The estimate is $700 per window BUT DONATIONS OF ANY AMOUNT ARE WELCOME. Donors are encouraged to find a partner and split the cost, or just make a donation and you will be paired with others to cover the cost.

Drawings showing the church windows are posted most Sundays in the Community Room to illustrate our progress. This solicitation is outside the pledging process and is a little audacious. But the idea of asking for help outside the budget was voiced at the Annual Meeting in June and UUCLV leadership subsequently approved a special fund drive. If all goes as planned, you should see scaffolding this fall as the job begins.
