What's Your Story?

Rev. Don Garrett

We'll explore the role of stories in our lives, their influence and the possibilities that new stories might offer.

What's Our Story?

Rev. Don Garrett

Individuals have their stories; families do too, as do nations. What's our story here in this congregation? How does it influence our lives together.

November 20

Thanksgiving in Bethlehem

We'll honor the holiday by taking our place within a story of gratitude.

Life Lessons from Willy Wonka

Ending our month on the theme of "story" what does this classic children's tale have to teach us all about life?

DonSense – by Rev. Don Garrett

Our Theme for November:

What Does It Mean to Be Community of Story?

Our lives are not just made up of stories; they are also made by stories. This might be the most important reminder of this month. Indeed, who of us hasn't felt the power of a story? We're all influenced by the stories in our lives – some we write, others may be written for us.

For instance, who can't relate to the friend that tells us that her family "clings to the story about how I'm the clumsy one." We've never seen our friend trip, not once. Or drop a thing, ever. And yet, somehow, when she goes to her parents' home or back to a family reunion, she spills coffee on at least one outfit, stubs at least one toe and stumbles down at least one step. There it is: the power of story!

Or think about our current struggles with economic or racial justice. The incredible income gap is described as "natural" or "the result of complex global dynamics over which we have little control." Similarly, the story of race in our country is told with an "entrenched" story arc. Not only are they powerful; stories can be debilitating.

So let's tell a new story! The ability to choose our stories is at the heart of our faith. Our stories need not be predetermined. Remember that old theological debate that produced Unitarian Universalism? Some said that God had predestined not just the big story of humanity, but our individual stories too. Some of us were slotted for heaven and others for hell. And God had written the list in ink and there was nothing any of us could do about it.

"Well," said our spiritual ancestors, "that's a bit harsh, don't you think?" Forget this extreme fate-driven story, they said. Freedom has a much bigger role than we're giving it credit for. God is not so much the author of the story as she is the magical muse that needles and nags us to put our own stamp on the narratives before us. In other words, we come from a long-line of spiritual relatives who agreed with Shakespeare that "All the world's a stage," but then went on to clarify that it's an improv show to which we've all been invited.

So let's consider our stories this month. The ones we tell, the ones that are told about us. The stories against which we struggle, even the stories we call "truth." We could even make our story into a tale of liberation and love.

See you in church.

– Don

FROM THE PRESIDENT

Building a Loving Congregation

By now, I hope that some, if not many, of you have heard about a young, but exciting, effort underway to strengthen the health and vitality of our beloved community. I use the term

“strengthen” intentionally, because the effort is a process — a step-by-step, deliberate process — to develop more dynamic Board/Minister leadership, a church-wide clarity about our highest aspirations, and church-wide relationships built upon a strong, solid foundation of love.

Our forthcoming tasks are based upon the works of internationally renowned and respected leadership consultant Patrick Lencioni, known for his work with churches, non-profits, and corporations of all sizes. We are also aligning our plans with organizational resources and staff from UUA. Our emerging effort began with the Committee on Ministry’s interviews and meetings with nine other committees in the church. Gradually, the work has blossomed to include the ministerial evaluation process and the development of a small working group comprised of the Board Executive Committee and the chairs of the Committee on Ministry and the Long-Range Planning Committee.

Your Board of Trustees was presented with Lencioni’s work at its annual retreat in August and, through the work in progress, the Board has begun to strengthen itself as the church’s Leadership Team. Think of leadership as a pyramid whose bottom, and therefore strongest, layer is TRUST. Building trust among ourselves as Board members and nurturing increased trust among all leaders and congregants is vital to a strong, loving community.

Please know that your Board of Trustees and Minister are working hard to develop a strong foundation for the future of the UUCLV. We are beginning this journey by seeking to become the most trusting, focused, and accountable Leadership Team we can be. We will certainly communicate the details and progress of our work as the effort evolves, and we look forward to inviting you, the full congregation, into church-wide conversations about the “heart” of who we are and who we might be as a beloved community!

In the meantime, we ask for your patience, for in loving congregations, as in many things in life, patience is a virtue. We also ask for your support and encouragement. Finally, we ask that you feel free to contact any member of our working group to learn more.

Peace and Love, Bob

2016-17 Fiscal Year, First Quarter Report

The first quarter of our 2016-17 church fiscal year ended on September 30. Generally speaking, cash flow was quite good, Income was comfortably ahead of our straight-line budget, and Expenses were about on schedule. However, Pledge Payments, Total Income and Net Income all were relatively low compared to first-quarter experience in recent years. This is being watched closely by the Finance Committee.

If you are not caught up -- or ahead -- with your pledge payments, please see what you can do to help us get "on track."

A summary of our income and expenses July 1 through September 30 follows:

$ End of First Quarter 2016-17 $
	Actual	Budget (straight-line)	Recent 3 year average
Income
Pledges	80,400	54,800	89,600
Rental Fees	12,100	9,000
Fundraising	2,100	6,500
Other	5,400	9,700
Total	100,000	80,000	108,400
Expenses	74,300	80,000	72,800
Net Income	25,700	0	35,600

Our fund balances as of September 30:

Fund	$
Operating	25,000
Reserves	61,000
Capital	141,000
Endowment	78,000

Please contact me if there are any questions.

Also, an "opportunity": Allen Zinnes, Don Davis or I would be pleased to speak with anyone who might be interested in helping with the very important, "treasury-related" activities of the church. Requisites are an affinity for "numbers" and enthusiasm for working on the computer.

Respectfully submitted,
Jan Phillips, UUCLV Treasurer

TBD

FROM THE LIFESPAN EDUCATION COORDINATOR

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION (RE) FOR CHILDREN AND YOUTH

As our Adult Faith Discussion group Spirit of Life winds up, the next class will be Owning Your Religious Past. This is a five-session program designed to help participants reckon with their religious upbringings and integrate them into their current religious lives. Here is the description from the curriculum book:

The majority of Unitarian Universalists come into the denomination from other religions; often there have been several stops along the path into our congregations. Some bring with them angry and unresolved feelings about experiences in other religious institutions, others have warm memories. Some move easily into an identity as a Unitarian Universalist; others experience a traumatic estrangement from family and from the center of their culture.

Our churches and fellowships have frequently neglected to understand and acknowledge the widely varying needs of members regarding this process. We can be most fully and completely present in our religious identity when we see our path as a continuum rather than a series of unrelated episodes. People who feel whole in this identity are more likely to make solid, healthy commitments to religious communities. Because we are usually more certain of what we left in another religion than what we bring forward from it, some tools are needed by which people may establish connections, bridges, and resonances between past and present. Such activity also provides clues about the possible future direction of those paths. This workshop is not just for "converts." Longtime and life-long Unitarian Universalists also experience change, sometimes profoundly, in their religious identity. This workshop is enriched by the participation of people of varying tenure as Unitarian Universalists.

Our first class will be on January 8 at 9:00am and continue every other week for five weeks. If you have any questions, or are interested in participating, contact me. Child care will be available on request.

In faith,
Jansen Wendell, Director of Lifespan Religious Education

FALL PLANT SALE AND MORE!

We put 800 native plants into the Lehigh Valley. We also donated to 10 green organizations approximately 15 potted natives each. The following people helped with the transport of 1300 plants, the setup and breakdown at church: Jane Cook, Mooneagle Arndt, Tom Repasch, the Bujnowski's, Sue Phillips, the Zinnes', the Poutre's, Ellen Bell, Linda Brown, Nancy Weston, and Wendy Bookhulz. Additionally, we raised $2000 for the UUCLV.

Some plants are leftover; hopefully they overwinter well and will be in the spring sale, which is the first 2 weekends in May. Tom Zimmerman used his truck to get 1 cubic yard of compost. We renewed the two beds to either side of the Center Street entrance and started planting with donations from the fall native plant sale. The Green Committee thanks all the involved people.

NOVEMBER 13 SECOND SUNDAY CONCERT: THE ALETHEIA TRIO

This concert is one you really won't want to miss! The Aletheia Trio, a group that elicited a standing ovation on its appearance with us two seasons ago, returns with a wonderful program of piano trio masterpieces from Debussy, Ravel, Prokofiev and Haydn. This young, New York and Juilliard-based group -- consisting of Francesca dePasquale, violin; Juliette Herlin, cello; and Kevin Ahfat, piano -- is very quickly garnering critical acclaim for their exquisite interpretations and performances. The concert starts at 3 pm with one of our notable receptions following. Students are admitted free, all others are $15.

RECEPTION: SECOND SUNDAY CONCERT SERIES, NOVEMBER 13TH

We are looking forward to the next Second Sunday Concert which will be held on November 13th. We are planning another beautiful reception after the concert. Thanks to everyone who brought refreshments last time for this event. We need your contributions again. Please contribute a dessert or hors d'oeuvres for the reception on Sunday, November 13th. Contact Pat Herring at 610-965-6776 or herringp@ptd.net to let us know that you are bringing a sweet or a savory to this event. If possible, please plan to bring your contribution to church on a serving plate the morning of the concert, label it "concert" and leave it in the FM kitchen on the table next to the back wall. Many thanks in advance for your generous help in making our concert series memorable!

NOVEMBER MEN'S GROUP

The November meeting of the UUCLV Men's Group will be 6:30 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 9 in the FM kitchen. There will be two topics: first, those of us who remember Bjorn Olsen, a former UUCLV member and co-founder of the Men's Group, will offer some brief recollections of him and his influence in the church. Bjorn passed away recently. Then, we will discuss the elections and the implications for the future of the country. The Men's Group is open to all men affiliated with the UUCLV and their male friends. Please bring food and/or beverage to share. For more information, contact men@uuclvpa.org or Frank Claps at 610-346-7629

THE ADOPT-A-WINDOW PROJECT CELEBRATED

On October 9th, the UUCLV celebrated the completed exterior painting project labelled “Adopt-a-Window”, thus making our Center Street appearance a point of pride! During coffee hour, hot dogs and corn-on-the-cob prepared by Dora Davenport, and a rousing round of applause marked the successful end to this monumental endeavor. To quote members Karen & Chuck West (and others), “The UUCLV is getting its curbside appeal back”. And we add with considerable pride, that no bank loan was needed.

Overseen by the Property Committee headed by Pat Herring and contracted to Del Painting & Finishing of Allentown, this monumental job was conducted in record time from start to finish, even with the 3-story aerial lift having to take a city-required holiday during Celtic Fest. The UUCLV Board & the Finance Committee approved the project in July. The work was officially concluded by mid-October. That included the fundraising more than $17,000 from the outstanding generosity of members and friends.

According to Dora who oversaw the daily painting, “By October 14th, the windows were completely finished along with all the black railings, including the church sign and the garage trim.” Much repair went into this project including caulking, glazing around window glass, down spout work, and removal of all old (and possibly flawed) exterior candles and wiring from the windows. The contractors included the repainting and repair of the garage trim, which was an additional plus. Fundraising for the project was based on the original estimate, although Del Painting provided a contract for less. (Thank you, Cari Poole, for this contact.)

Thanks to the many donors (if your name is missing, please tell us for the December issue). Donors were: Allen & Ilse (Stoll) Zinnes, Peggy Hobbs, Dave & Lib Kiefer, Don & Jean Davis, Barbara & John Diamant, Fran & Judy Claps, Nancy Light, Pat Herring, Richard & Julie Brooks, Molly Trimble, Ann Peaslee, Lyle & Vicky Woodard, Karen & Bill Berry, Robert Garvin, Pradeep Ghia, Cease Blocker, Jordan & Melissa Sonnenblick,

Bernie & Lorraine Bujnowski, Dora Davenport & Robin Capoor, Ellen Bell & Phil Reiss, Chuck & Karen West, Dave Roper, Brenda Barton, Donald Bortz, Michael & Jane

Benning, Win & Marie Tweed, Judy Wright, Robin Brumfield, Jan & Sue Phillips, Dan Poresky, Mary Larkin, Margo Dixon, Bob & Amy Cohen, and Dave Campolongo. Also, from Stewardship: Dorothy Cockrell & Bill Licht, Cecilia Collura-Eberhard, and Christine Davis.

This work has stimulated other Property Committee repairs, including the handicap entrance ramp. Our Committee has a very full plate—we welcome new members!

*From the Window's Team of the Property Committee—
Pat Herring, Judy Wright, Karen Berry & Dora Davenport*

WORK PARTY

The Property Committee is scheduling a work party for Saturday, November 12th, from 9:00am - 12:00 noon. Projects to be done include installing the storm windows and dealing with the leaves in the yard and the back of the church. We need many hands to help; more projects will reveal themselves by November 12th. Come enjoy a morning of comradery with your fellow Unitarians. Dora is providing hot dogs on the grill for our Saturday Lunch Special! For information contact property@uuclvpa.org
